Isaiah 61:1-3

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me;

because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek;

he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord,

and the day of vengeance of our God;

to comfort all that mourn;

To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning,

the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;

that they might be called trees of righteousness,

the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified

Man has accomplished more in the past 10 years than in the past 100 years. The reality of life reveals the need and dependency on our modern world and its artificial intelligence source. Its here, a system or systems designed to meet the growing demand for instant gratification, it makes good business sense and even better for shareholders but for the consumer its a void that will never satisfy the growing need to want more and more. Christmas is the most commercialized holiday season since its inception by Constantine who officially declared it a celebration of Jesus Christ day of birth, rather it been a day of holiness and righteousness. We have since moved away from where Christ is and that is seated at the right hand of the Father in Heaven, who

Isaiah 1:21-26

How is the faithful city become an harlot!

it was full of judgment; righteousness
lodged in it;

but now murderers.

Thy silver is become dross,

thy wine mixed with water:

Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves:

every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards:

they judge not the fatherless,

neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

Therefore saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts, the mighty One of Israel,

Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries,
and avenge me of mine enemies:

And I will turn my hand upon thee,

and purely purge away thy dross,

and take away all thy tin:

And I will restore thy judges as at the first,

and thy counsellors as at the beginning:

afterward thou shalt be called,

The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

is insisting on many sons be brought to glory through His Holy Word and the Holy Spirit, we only remember Him as a child in a manger. As the world has shifted so has the true body of Christ growing more efficient and capable doing might things in the name of Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit declaring the power of truth and grace of the eternal magnificent word established on earth as it is in Heaven. To celebrate Christ is to abide by His law, His teaching on the Kingdom and Apostles Doctrine which include fellowship, breaking of bread, and prayer. However to celebrate Christ is too love Him with all our heart, mind and soul.

The 90/10 principle is that 90% of things we engage in only 10% of it actual works out however the 10% exceeds the expectations of the 90% and I am talking spiritual, mature, sonship things.

So things like 'the reason for the season', 'its a time of giving', 'its the festive season', and so on are all well crafted sayings that does not have the purpose and true intent of God. Christ was born, but grow up in the ways God intended but we have not biblically speaking, our mindset and behavior reflect it.

I personally would say what is important is how we walk before God, considering the sacrifice which Christ Jesus made to redeem sinful man does not warrant our course of misdirection.

Yes! lets we joyful and celebrate the King of Kings out of the heart of sonship.

Blessed Christmas and a fulfilled 2018
